Shine picks up distribution rights to VH1's 'Secrets of Aspen'

Shine International announces it has picked up the international distribution rights for VH1's new program Secrets of Aspen. The distributor signed a deal with High Noon Entertainment to distribute the 8x30-minute docu-soap which follows six Aspen-based ladies over one summer as they look for love, strive to pay the rent and keep up their friendships. The series debuted on VH1 Sunday, January 3.
